A DAILY STOP FOR ALL STAR WARS NEWS

ABOUT US

Since its launch on February 1, 2004, Yodasnews has been one of the leading online destinations for Star Wars news, collectibles, and pop culture coverage. We deliver daily, around-the-clock updates across our website and social media channels, keeping fans informed and engaged.

Our team has been on the ground at every major convention and premiere, including San Diego Comic-Con, New York Comic-Con, Philly Comic Con, L.A. Comic Con, and all major Star Wars show and movie previews (by invitation of Lucasfilm/Disney). This has built us a reputation for reliability and fan-first coverage. Along the way, we've partnered with many of the biggest names in the collectibles and entertainment industries and become a go-to resource for adult collectors and lifelong fans.

Whether it's breaking news, exclusive previews, or fan-focused coverage, Yodasnews continues to be a trusted voice in the Star Wars universe and beyond.
